

Daniel Hung, Durham University Business School

Dr Chi-Hsiou Hung holds an MSc in Finance and a PhD in Accounting and Finance, both from Lancaster University Management School. Dr Hung is also a Fellow of the Higher Education Academy. Before pursuing his PhD, Dr Hung held a position of a Financial Consultant in the Global Private Banking Group of Merrill Lynch Inc and was a manager of Priority Banking of Standard Chartered Bank. Dr Hung's current research interests are in the areas of Asset Pricing, Dynamic Asset Allocation, Financial Risk Management and Hedge Fund Strategies.

Dr Hung's research work has been published in academic finance journals, including the Journal of Banking and Finance and the Journal of Business Finance and Accounting. His research has been funded by the Institute for Quantitative Investment Research (INQUIRE UK) in 2007 and 2005. Dr Hung also received two Best Paper Awards including the New York Stock Exchange Prize from the 2005 annual meeting of the Midwest Finance Association and the Taiwan Stock Exchange Prize from the 2006 annual meeting of the Securities and Financial Markets conference.

He currently teaches Financial Risk Management and Advanced Financial Theory for the MSc programmes.